Subject: February 22, 2017 -- Invitation to Join the Panel for a FOLLOW-UP to last summer's ABA-ELI Session on TSCA Amendments
ABA SEER PCRRTK TSCA Brown Bag Feb. 22, 2017 \(EAST 77711636 2\).DOCX

All –

I hope you agree that we had such a successful TSCA program last summer that we should get the “old gang” back together for a follow-up event! Well, you are in luck, I am coordinating another ABA program on the status of the Agency’s efforts to implement the 2016 amendments to TSCA. The event will take place in the same location and follow the same format as last June’s session -- as an easy-to-attend, two hour “brown bag” event, to be held February 22. Attached is a “save the date” flyer that I’d love to be able to being to edit to include the same list of luminaries who spoke as Panelists during last year’s program.

By way of reminder: this event is for a “good cause”. The mission of the program is educational. the ABA committees listed in the attached announcement and the Environmental Law Institute are the principal sponsors of the event. Thus, it is not a money generating event; people who attend in person are not charged for doing so, and we welcome both lawyers and non-lawyers to join in person and to participate. Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer is proud to host the event, but we also do not financially benefit from doing so (and we gladly sponsor a light lunch to make the event more palatable – if you will pardon the pun).

There is so much going on in the realm of TSCA implementation. Please do consider re-joining us as a featured Panelist. If can do so, please feel free to reach out to me directly soon -- in a private email or to call if you prefer. The date is “locked in”, so if you cannot adjust your schedule to be here, please feel free to suggest an alternate.

I look forward to seeing you again soon.

Larry
